MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with Colonel Glenn Smith, of the Senate
Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff.

1. On this date, in response to his request, I met with Colonel Glenn Smith, of the Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, who wished to make several requests of the Agency in connection with his work with Senator Henry M. Jackson and his special subcommittee on the nuclear test ban safeguards.

[REDACTED] Colonel Smith and I chatted about this subject. I told him that, as a layman, it would seem to me that this question could be argued from several points of view and, in the final analysis, might well require a more specific definition of terms. I agreed, however, to relay his request to our scientific people. In response to my question, Colonel Smith said that while he would like a summary statement, this could be done on an informal basis, i.e., without an official communication from the Agency.
